CREDITS

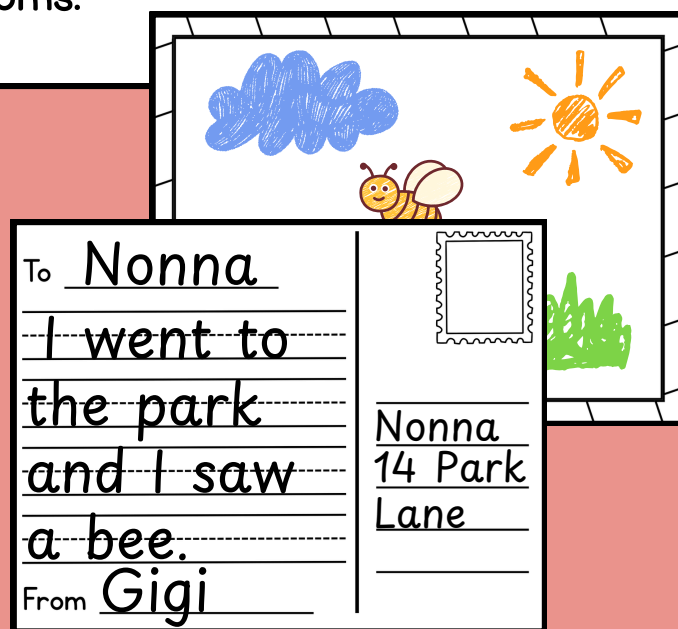

HOW TO USE THIS RESOURCE

These simple templates give young learners a fun way to practice drawing and writing while sharing a message. Students illustrate the front of their postcard and write a short message on the back.

These templates are perfect for Kindergarten, First Grade, and Second Grade classrooms.

CLASSROOM IDEAS:

- Writing centers.
- Dramatic play (post office theme).
- Morning work.
- Early finishers.
- Themed writing lessons.
- Independent writing practice.

Students can write postcards to friends, family members, classmates, or classroom characters.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

Small Postcards

- One page includes both sides of the postcard.
- Students draw on the front and write on the back.
- Writing options include blank space, primary lines, and narrow lines.

Large Postcards

- Full-page versions of the picture side and writing side.
- Great for younger writers or classroom displays.

Grab Another FREE Writing Activity!

If your students enjoy these postcard templates, they may also love this free opinion writing activity.

THIS OR THAT WRITING PROMPTS

Students choose between two fun options, draw their choice, and explain their opinion.

Perfect for:

- Writing centers
- Morning work
- Opinion writing lessons
- Early finishers
